Final Leg Of The George Strait 2002 Tour To Get Underway In September

The final leg of the 2002 George Strait concert tour, sponsored by Chevy Trucks and the GM Card, will kick off in Auburn Hills, Michigan on September 12th and culminate in San Antonio, Texas at the new SBC Arena on November 2nd.

JoDee Messina, two-time CMA Female Vocalist of the Year nominee and the 1999 CMA Horizon Award winner, will be Strait's guest on the tour. The first leg of the tour in late February and early March, included

Lafayette, LA, Memphis, TN, and Houston, TX. The final leg will include stops in 14 different states including Michigan, Tennessee, North Carolina, California (3), Indiana, Ohio (2), New York (2), Pennsylvania, Texas (3), New Mexico (2), Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Oklahoma. Many of the cities on the tour care cities where George has not appeared in a number of years. Please check the itinerary page of the newsletter for the cities that the tour will visit as well as the projected dates and on-sales.

As previously announced, the 2002 George Strait Tour will return to the Arena setting and will utilize an in-the-square concept. The stage will be in the middle of the floor and will contain a microphone on each side of the stage with George working each side of the stage. The concept gives everyone a much closer view of the stage. In addition, video screens will be utilized. 🎤

It's "True": George Strait Will Perform The First Concert To Be Held In San Antonio's New SBC Center

SAN ANTONIO — On November 2nd, San Antonio's brand new state-of-the-art entertainment and sports arena, The SBC Center, will celebrate its grand opening with alive performance from legendary country music superstar, George Strait.

With record breaking sales of over 57 million, 47 number one singles, and armloads of awards, George Strait is undeniably one of the most successful recording artists in history. Now the Texas native and avid Spurs fan will delight his hometown crowd as the first entertainer to grace the stage of the 18,500 seat venue. Tickets for George Strait's live concert are scheduled to go on sale in July.

"We are thrilled to be hosting George Strait as our first major music icon, as well as one of our very own South Texas treasures, which makes him the perfect entertainer to introduce the arena to San Antonio."

"George Strait embodies the family-oriented style of entertainment we plan on including in the annual schedule of events at the SBC Center," said SBC Center Vice President and General Manager Steve Zito. "By taking part in the Center's grand opening festivities, Strait will help show everyone what an incredible concert venue and asset it will be to the South Texas community."

"It's an honor to be the first performer at the new SBC Center," said George Strait. "San Antonio is my home and I now only look forward to performing there, but also to attending Spurs games, the rodeo, and other events. It's a great addition to our town."

"After years of hard work, planning and building, San Antonio is excited to watch as our SBC Center becomes a reality," said Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff. "I can't thank of a better entertainer than George Strait - a Texas native - to help the Spurs and Bexar County open the doors of this state-of-the-art arena to all of South Texas." 🎤

The George Strait Team Roping Classic Announces 2003 Dates

Team Roping to Take Place on March 14 & 15

NASHVILLE, TN — Dates for the 21st Annual George Strait Team Roping Classic have been set for March 14 & 15. The 2003 event will once again take place at the Rose Palace in San Antonio, TX.

Sponsored by Chevy Trucks and Tractor Supply Company, this year's roping event was the most successful in its 20-year history. A record breaking 562 teams competed on March 15 and 16 in front of the sold out Texas crowd. This year's incredible turn out could be attributed, in part, to moving the event from July, as in past years, to a more accommodating March date. Not only was the temperature more moderate, the routing was also easier on many of the ropers who might otherwise be in the Pacific Northwest during July. "I had no idea, really, that changing the dates on it would increase the teams so much. I was really surprised, but I'm really glad because the payout was phenomenal for an "open." You really don't see that," said Strait.

In fact, this year's GSTRC winners picked up nearly $300,000 in cash and prizes including two loaded Chevy Dually Pick-Up Trucks and matching three-horse Bruton Trailers, hand-tooled Twister Saddles and George Strait Team Roping Classic belt buckles by Gist. In addition, every roper that qualified to return for the second day earned GSTRC signature jackets by Wrangler. Adding to the prize money and the excitement, HEB Food Stores sponsored the HEB Challenge giving ropers a chance to win even more cash. If a team happened to win their round with a steer donning a red wrapping around its horns, they received an extra $2,500 from HEB.

The George Strait Team Roping Classic

began 20 years ago in Kingsville, TX as a small family event for local ropers. Each year the number of teams and the prize money payout increases making it one of the biggest and most anticipated roping events of each year.

When asked about the phenomenal growth of his event over the years, host George Strait replied, "I don't know that twenty years ago we really had an idea of what this could become. We knew we wanted to make it a special roping and we thought that we could do that. We had a Texas resident roping back then and after a couple two or three years, we opened it up to the world and that really made a difference. As we went along, it became more and more clear just how big we could grow this thing. Every year we've tried to get bigger and better." 🌟

Anita's Notes:

We are six months into the year. Before you know it Christmas will be just around the corner. The days come and go so quickly. Maybe it is just me, but it sure would be nice if we could put the brakes on the calendar for a little bit. With the first part of the year done, I believe the second part will travel even faster. By the time you receive this issue of Strait Talk, George will have enjoyed another Kentucky Derby, another birthday and will have updated his Chevy Truck show video that intros his shows. He has also traveled a little, rested a little and performed on the Academy of Country Music Awards show.

The next part of the 2002 George Strait Tour will be here before you know it. We are happy to announce that the 1999 CMA Horizon Award winner and 2-time CMA Female Vocalist of the Year nominee, Jo Dee Messina, will join George for all of his dates this year. Those of you who saw George in Lafayette and Memphis know what an outstanding show she puts on. We are thrilled to have her with us again. The rest of the tour will start in Auburn Hills, MI on September 12th and end in San Antonio, TX on November 2nd. Please check out the itinerary on the back page for all of the cities, dates, venues and on-sale information. Please remember that all of that information is tentative and subject to change. Please keep an eye on our website at www.georgestrait.com for any changes, or if you are not computer literate, check out Strait Line periodically at 615-824-7176. We are happy to have our friends at Chevy Trucks back with us as a tour sponsor this year. They will be joined by their associates at GM Card as a co-sponsor.

We would like to thank you for the beautiful cards, letters and gifts that you sent for George and George Jr.'s birthdays. They have been forwarded to them. They send their sincere appreciation and thanks to all of those thoughtful fans.

A continued thank you to the fan club members who send in newspaper clippings, reviews, photos, games and stories for the collectable column as well as for use elsewhere in the newsletter. We appreciate it. Please go to that section and read about how you can earn Strait Cash. While we are on the subject, we are diligently looking for several items that you might help us with. We are trying to find copies of any radio or TV interviews that George may have done over the years. We have a number of them but are continually looking for the ones we don't have. We are also in the process of collecting magazine covers that George has appeared on throughout his career. Newspapers with a full cover photo are also something we are looking for. We have many of the magazines and newspapers but not all. Many of the magazines and newspapers are out of business now. If you have a magazine cover, newspaper or catalog cover that you think we might use, please scan it on your computer and e-mail it to us at archive@georgestraitfans.com. We would very much appreciate it. This is a new e-mail address that will only be used for things of this nature and there will not be anyone available to respond to any other questions. Also, if you have a live radio or TV interview that you think we would like to have, please send us a copy of it. We sincerely appreciate it.

We are in the process of making some changes to our website. These changes will be taking place over the next few months. We hope you like them. There is not much we can talk about right now as the plans are still being formulated.

We have 3 winners for the "20 Strait #1 derful Years" contest and they are:

Jacket Winner:

Donna G. Boykin - Forest, MS

Sweatshirt Winner:

Bahola Edwards - Midland, TX

T-Shirt Winner:

Judy Chandler - Franklin, TN

Congratulations to the winners. Your prizes are on the way to you. Thank you to Jeanie Spears for the great game and hope you will enjoy this next issue's game as well.

I would like to thank the GSFC members who are responding to the renewal notices sent out by e-mail and mail. We have had a change in renewals. It continues to be $15 for 1 year if you would like your Strait Talk e-mailed to you and $20 for 1 year if you would like your Strait Talk sent to you by mail. We have only 1-year renewals now and no longer have the 2-year option. Please keep in mind that if you send us money for a 2-year renewal, we will not refund the difference in cash but will send you Strait Cash instead. We have been amazed at the number of people who have been joining and renewing using the e-mail option. If you do not receive your newsletter, please let us know so we can check and see if we have your proper address or e-mail address.

If you are moving, please call us or write us with your new address. The Strait Talk Newsletter is sent by bulk mail and the post office will not forward your newsletter to you. Also please remember that if you have moved and did not notify us, we will not send an additional copy of the newsletter.

I hope you noticed elsewhere in the newsletter that the dates for the 2003 George Strait Team Roping Classic have been set for March 14th and 15th. We had a great time at this year's Classic and will make sure we are there for 2003 version. We will keep you posted on when tickets go on sale on the George Strait website at www.georgestrait.com and the GSTRC website at www.gstrc.com.

As we approach this summertime it reminds us that the 4th of July holiday period is nearing. This 4th of July is the first one we will observe since the September 11th tragedy. Our prayers go out to the families of those that were lost on that horrific day and our thanks and prayers also go out to our servicemen and women in Afghanistan and around the world who are doing their very best to protect the freedom that we all hold so dear and sacred. Freedom is a very precious thing and we all know that sacrifices must be made on all of our parts to protect it. GOD BLESS AMERICA!
